About ICIECCA

The 2nd International Conference on Inventive Electronics, Computing and Communication Applications (ICIECCA 2023) is organised with a primary objective of bringing together scientists, researchers, academicians and industrial experts in the field of computing, electronics and communication to a common forum. The primary goal of the conference is to promote the exchange of innovative research information on the emerging technologies and newer solutions that can guide and lead towards a better communication and networking experience. The conference will mainly focus on recent advances in the fields of Electronics, Computing and Communication. Peer-reviewed accepted papers will be published in IRO Journals.

About IRO

Inventive Research Organization (IRO) supports all the recent research activities of young minds. IRO started in the year 2016. IRO is a proprietorship organization for the researchers and engineers in field of informatics engineering. The main objective of the IRO is "To raise leaders through the Research activities in the in the field of information technology and solve the issues of humanity." The IRO members include software engineers, professors, scientists, engineers, scholars, and university postgraduate and undergraduate engineering and technology students, etc. The IRO also welcomes all the Engineering and Technical Corporate Organizations, Colleges and Universities to join us to exchange information and ideas; in according with our objective to facilitate this, we call upon to network with us.
